Taliban's military strategy in Afghanistan: A critical analysis

February 23, 2026

The Taliban's military strategy in Afghanistan is a complex and evolving one. It involves a combination of conventional warfare, guerrilla tactics, and the use of modern technology. The Taliban's strategy is based on the principle of asymmetric warfare, where a weaker force uses unconventional tactics to defeat a stronger force. This strategy has been successful in the past, and it is likely to continue to be successful in the future.
