Oil - Venezuela's Sovereignty: A Call for International Solidarity

March 22, 2026

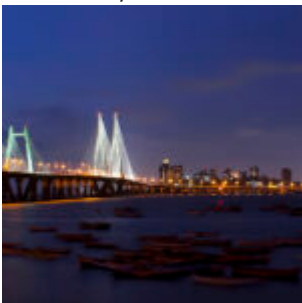

Oil is a vital resource for the world, and its control has long been a source of conflict. In Venezuela, the struggle for oil sovereignty is a fight for national independence and self-determination. The international community must stand in solidarity with the Venezuelan people, who are being oppressed by a regime that seeks to exploit their resources for its own gain. We call for a global movement to support the Venezuelan people and demand the end of international oil imperialism. “Oil is the lifeblood of the world, and we must ensure it remains in the hands of the people.”
